SENATE WHITTLES ON THE TREATY.

Tillman Wants to See the Correspondence With Colombia Pertaining To a Canal Across the Isthmus. House Had Local Affairs.

Washington, Dec. 18.—No business of general importance was transacted by the senate in open session. Prior to the secret session only routine matters were brought up except the following resolution, which Mr. Tillman (S. C.) sent to the desk and had read: "Resolved, that the president be and is hereby requested, if not in his judgment incompatible with public interest, to furnish the senate an information and copies of all correspondence between this government and the government of Colombia, showing what steps, if any, have been taken by this government to secure a treaty between the two governments for a modification by Colombia of existing treaties or concessions with the view of securing to the United States the right to construct a canal over the territory of Colombia, between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans."

At the conclusion of the reading of the resolution, Mr. Lodge (Mass.) remarked: "That is executive business, I move that the senate now proceed to the consideration of executive business."

Mr. Tillman—"Ain't you going to allow this resolution to go through?" Mr. Lodge—"Certainly, in executive session."

The senate then, 12:30, went into executive session to resume consideration of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

Before taking up the treaty the senate ratified minor treaties extending the time for the consideration of the reciprocity treaties which failed to secure action at the last session of congress. In each instance the supplementary agreements extend the time for a ratification 12 months. Senator Foraker then spoke on the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, defending and supporting it as a wise precaution for the protection of American interests. He said he had been willing to support the treaty unamended, believing it to have been properly guarded, but that if there had originally been any doubt on that score there now could be none in view of the amendments already adopted by the senate and those recommended by the committee on foreign relations.

Senator Nelson (Minn.) offered an amendment which he will propose to the army reorganization bill providing for the issuance by the secretary of war to the governors of the states and territories of Krag-Jorgensen rifles and equipment for the national guard.

In the House. It was District of Columbia day in the house. The senate bill to amend the act to authorize the construction of a bridge across the Mississippi river at Dubuque was passed.

Mr. Grosvenor (O.) introduced a bill to extend to Hawaii the privilege of the act providing for the immediate transportation of dutiable goods.

Fight on Reapportionment.

Washington, Dec. 18.—There promises to be a big fight over the Hopkins reapportionment bill when it is taken up in the house after the holiday recess. The representatives of the states which will lose representatives under the bill are organizing for the struggle. The members for the minority of the census committee are seeking to marshal all the available strength among the dissatisfied members by making a minority report which will recommend a basis for reapportionment that will not reduce the representation in any state. This can be accomplished by making 194,000 inhabitants the basis of representation. Upon this basis the house would consist of 387 members. No state would lose and the following would gain: Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Iowa, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Missouri, North Dakota, Washington, West Virginia and Wisconsin, each one; Minnesota, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, each two; Illinois, New York, North Carolina and Texas, each three. Mr. Burleigh of Maine will draw the minority report recommending this basis. It is possible that Mr. Crumpacker of Indiana will still further complicate the situation by making another minority report in support of his proposition to reduce representation from the south.

River and Harbor Bill.

Washington, Dec. 18.—The house committee on river and harbors expects to have its bill completed before the holiday recess. The total is mounting far beyond the original anticipations and at the last moment it may be found necessary to scale all around. It is understood the bill with the continuing contracts provisionally agreed upon exceeds $75,000,000. The committee has provisionally agreed to $225,000 for a survey of the 14-foot canal project to connect the great lakes with the Mississippi by way of the Chicago drainage canal and the Des Plaines river.

POLYGAMY SPREADING.

Meeting of Women Protests Against Multiplied Matrimony.

Philadelphia, Dec. 18.—A mass meeting of women to protest against Mormon polygamy was held here, the principle speakers being Dr. S. J. Elliott, an Episcopal deaconess and the Rev. W. E. Campbell, a missionary among the Mormons. The meeting was one of a series being held throughout the country under the auspices of the International Council of Women for Christian and patriotic service. Miss Helen Gould is president of the council.

Dr. Elliott said in the course of her remarks: "Polygamy is spreading with Mormonism. It is not confined to Utah, but exists in Idaho, New Mexico, Arizona, Wyoming, Nevada and Colorado. If four more states are added to the nine in which the Mormons already have political power it will be impossible to legislate against them." Resolutions were adopted urging congress to take prompt action in favor of an amendment prohibiting polygamy and making its practice punishable by disfranchisement.

Royalty Roasted.

London, Dec. 18.—Rev. Dr. Joseph Parker, pastor of the City Temple, who has assumed for a week, the editorship of the London Sun, under the heading "Betting and Gambling Forecasts," tilts at the Prince of Wales and Lord Rosebery, as follows: "Woe to any country in which the heirs to the throne and prime ministers favor the racecourse as it exists among us today. If the princes are guilty, it is a poor consolation for us to rebuke peasants. If the premier can blaspheme, he has no right to rebuke rascals upon the street. I would rather have as premier a man of solid character than one of brilliant mind addicted to habits that may have the effect of a pestilence upon the rising generation."

Hazing Inquest.

West Point, N. Y., Dec. 18.—The military court of inquiry appointed by the secretary of war to investigate the charges of hazing Cadet Booz at the military academy two years ago has arrived here to continue the investigation begun at Bristol.

GLORIFIED THEIR GOD.

Boers Held Prayer Meeting on the Scene of Their Victory.

BRAVERY OF THE BOERS IN BATTLE.

Hymns of Thanksgiving Rang in the Ears of the Retreating British. Boers Came Near Capturing The Entire British Army.

Johannesburg, Dec. 18.—Details of the defeat of the British at Nootgedacht indicate that General Clements' entire force had a narrow escape from capture. The Boer plans were splendidly laid. If the main British column had tarried a little longer there would have been a complete success for the Boers who exposed themselves undauntedly, yelling and waving their arms. Their rushes were only stemmed by artillery.

After the British retreat the Boers held a prayer meeting. Their hymns could be heard by the retreating British. Colonel Legg exhibited stoical bravery. He shot five Boers with his revolver before he fell with three bullets in his body.

Germans Protest.

Berlin, Dec. 18.—At a meeting of Pan-Germans protests were entered against the exclusion of Germans from the Transvaal. Some of the speakers so expelled allege they were brutally treated by the British and a government inquiry was demanded.

Brought In the Wounded.

London, Dec. 18.—Lord Kitchner in a dispatch from Pretoria, dated Dec. 17, reports that all the British wounded in the engagement at Nootgedacht have arrived there and are doing well.

Beaten Back by Boers.

Cape Town, Dec. 18.—The Boers who crossed the Orange river into Cape Colony, west of Aliwal North, Saturday, encountered the Cape Rifles and Brabant's force, who retired with loss.

Favor Pacific Cable.

Philadelphia, Dec. 18.—Government ownership of a Pacific cable was discussed by the Manufacturers' club. Brigadier General Greeley, United States chief signal officer and Dr. A. E. Kennally, president of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, participated in the discussion. L. E. Hughes of this city emphasized the military and strategic necessity. He estimated the cost, for 7,750 nautical miles, at $10,000,000 requiring an earning capacity of $925,000 a year. The cable tolls of the war department alone, however, it was pointed out, have averaged a monthly rate of more than $325,000 a year and at current rates the projected cable need be in operation less than an hour a day to earn the $925,000. The club adopted a resolution approving the Corliss bill.

Third Tie-up.

Boonville, Ind., Dec. 18.—An unmasked mob of 100 men came here from Rockport and demanded John Rolla, the third colored man accused of murdering Hollie Simons, a white barber at Rockport, and for which Bud Rolands and James Henderson were lynched at Rockport Sunday night. After his arrest Rolla denied his guilt but subsequently confessed that he was the first to strike Simons. Rolla was brought here for safe keeping. Upon being refused the prisoner the mob battered in the wall of the jail with a telegraph pole, took Rolla to the jail yard and hanged him to a tree. Not a shot was fired and the people of Boonville offered no resistance to the mob.

Hopewell, Pa., Dec. 18.—A. C. Metzger, of Newark N. J., shot and killed his wife at a hotel here and committed suicide with the same weapon. Mrs. Metzger was the leading lady of a theatrical company engaged here. Her husband, from whom she had been separated some time, had previously concealed himself in her room and soon after her entrance came the tragedy.

THE TOBACCO TRUST.

The Combine Is Opening the Eyes of the Farmers by Fixing This Year's Price So Low.

[Carlisle Mercury.]

A small concern like the Mercury is not likely to have much effect upon so powerful a machine as the tobacco trust, but if the managers of that concern would hear us for a few moments we could inform them that their treatment of the growers in fixing the price of the raw material at a figure so low as to be ruinous, is preparing the public mind for very harsh treatment in more ways than one. Not only have the raisers of tobacco begun to understand and complain, but the trade papers have begun a war against the trust for its unfair course as to the fixing of the price to be paid for tobacco in bulk. The Louisville "Weed" of last week has a very sensible article about farmers selling to the trust at such low figures as to be ruinous. Recently the Doerhoffer brothers, the most experienced tobacco men in the State, have left the employment of the independent trade. If farmers and raisers will refuse to sell at the low prices offered they will find a market at fair figures in due season.

If the trust has any ears let it put them to the ground and hear the increasing roar of approaching trouble.

SHIP SUBSIDY

Would Simply Add Bonuses To the Steamship Dividends.

[New York World.]

The Frye-Hanna plea for the ship subsidy scheme is incomplete. For instance, it omits these points:

1. Does the bill compel more American sailors at better wages?

It does not. On the contrary, the ship owner may pocket the subsidy and hire foreign seamen at the lowest wages.

2. Does the bill assure larger American cargoes?

It does not. On the contrary, it makes it possible for ship owners to sail with empty vessels and still get the subsidy.

3. Does the bill secure faster ships?

It does not. On the contrary, it makes fast trips of no consequence.

4. Does the bill arrange for more mails?

It does not. On the contrary, it leaves the foreign mails as now, to be carried by the fast British and German ships.

5. Does the bill provide for more ship?

It does not. On the contrary, it makes it to the interest of the existing companies to combine, crush competition and divide the subsidy among as few ships and ship owners as possible.

What, then, does the bill promise?

Large bonuses to be added to the dividends of steamship companies which are at present earning good profits without subsidies.

That is all. But in the name of Hanna and McKinley and the campaign chest isn't that enough?

DESPERADO SUICIDED.

No Chance of Escape and Preferred Death to Capture.

WAS A NOTORIOUS TRAIN ROBBER.

One of the Bandits Who Held Up a New Orleans Train—Conductor's Watch, Registered Letters and Dynamite Found on Him.

New Orleans, Dec. 18.—The Illinois Central robber who held up the Chicago train Dec. 11 has been found dead in the vicinity of his crime.

Shortly after the hold-up of the train Thursday night officers while hastening to the scene of the robbery, discovered two men carrying a bag and walking rapidly between the Illinois and Mississippi Valley tracks. The officers halted the men but instead of surrendering, the latter began to shoot. Both officers responded and a lively fusillade followed. The men finally dropped a United States mail pouch and fled. Since then detectives have been carefully examining the swamp in the rear of the city. Their search was rewarded with the finding of the body of a man who had succumbed to the effects of a wound and exposure. An examination of his effects disclosed Conductor Kinnabrew's watch and other evidence to prove that he was one of the men who had committed the robbery.

When the body was discovered it was found the man had cut his throat and had evidently just died. His own watch and Conductor Kinnabrew's watch were running. He had been wounded in the back and left wrist. Registered letters and dynamite were found on the body.

The dead robber has been identified as Channing B. Barnes, alias John H. Nelson, alias Jack Nelson. He was wanted for holding up the Illinois Central train near Wickliffe, Ky., last July and robbing the safe of the American Express company. His brother, Charles W. Barnes, and Richard Doyle, were convicted for this robbery and each is serving a sentence in the Kentucky state penitentiary. When the attempt was made to arrest Channing Barnes in St. Louis, he shot George Murray and made his escape.

New Rector of Aberdeen.

London, Dec. 18.—Lord Strathcona, the Canadian high commissioner, was installed as lord rector of Aberdeen. He received a cordial greeting from the students. In his rectorial address, Lord Strathcona dealt with the unity of empire. He referred to the gratifying growth of the Dominion of Canada, the federation of Australia and the similar federation of South Africa to follow the war. The speaker did not altogether favor an imperial parliament. He thought a consultative imperial council would meet all the needs. At the close of his address, Lord Strathcona announced that he would give £25,000, provided £50,000 more was raised within a year to wipe out the debt of the university.

Duke and Grille In Gotham.

Washington, Dec. 18.—The Duke and Duchess of Manchester, accompanied by Melville Ellis, the duke's secretary and intimate friend, arrived here in the private car of Mr. Zimmerman, the duke's father-in-law. Their car was attached to the New York express and the passengers were in the depot only a few moments. The Cincinnati train was late and the New York train was held in order that the duke and duchess might not be delayed. They will do their Christmas shopping in New York and return to Cincinnati during the latter part of the week.

Fugitive Fled.

Cincinnati, Dec. 18.—K. P. McCaskill, chief of the provincial detective force of Quebec, and three lieutenants are here seeking J. T. Chisholm, of Montreal, who is a fugitive from justice, having jumped a bond of $10,000 under which he had been placed to await his appearance on a charge of conspiring to defraud the Merchants bank of Montreal of $220,000. Chisholm narrowly escaped capture. He met here Mrs. Dana Wright of Hamilton, O., whom he had known in Montreal, but he got away before the officers got here.

New York, Dec. 18.—A dispatch from London says Ambassador Choate will sail either Saturday or the week afterward for the United States, the death of his partner, Charles C. Beaman, having rendered his presence in New York necessary. It is believed Ambassador Choate will not return to London. He is not a rich man and his life as ambassador entails not only the loss of his professional income, but is likewise a heavy drain on his purse.

PUGH FOR SENATOR.

Republican District Says He Is a Candidate.
Augustus E. Wilson Is Also Being Groomed For the Race.

[Courier-Journal.]

Republican leaders all over the State are looming up as probable candidates for Senatorial honors at the next regular session of the Legislature in the event the Republicans control both houses on a joint ballot. Former Gov. Bradley is recognized as a candidate and Mr. Deboe has unhesitatingly said that he would like to succeed himself, and now comes Congressman Samuel J. Pugh, of the Ninth Congressional district. Mr. Pugh has not made his formal announcement, but a Republican politician from his district was authority for the statement that Mr. Pugh would be a candidate. In fact, he said that he got his information from such a source that there was no doubt in his mind that Mr. Pugh would announce at the proper time.

"And, by the way," said the politician, "I understand that Louisville is to have a candidate also in the person of Augustus E. Wilson. You know that Wilson took a prominent part in the late election, something unusual for him, and he was allowed to map out his own itinerary. That, coupled with remarks I have heard recently, leads me to believe that he will become a candidate, and I understand a strong effort is to be made to send a solid Republican delegation from Louisville and Jefferson County to Frankfort, which will undoubtedly be a play in Wilson's favor.

"I do not think that Vincent Boreing will run. Of course he would like to be in the Senate, but he has his eye on the Governorship three years hence, and I think he will be a candidate."

The statement some days ago in reference to the death of Mrs. Sarah Morrison, nee Wilson, at her home, east of Springdale, was based on what the BULLETIN regarded as absolutely authentic information. It seems, however, that our good friends who gave us the item were misinformed. From Mr. Morrison himself it is learned that his wife's death was not caused by injuries, and that she never met with any such accident as that detailed in the BULLETIN.

MAY SUE FOR FEES.

Stories of Threatened Litigation Against the Goebel Estate That Have Created a Stir in Frankfort.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 17.—Information that is known to be reliable has reached Frankfort to the effect that the estate of the late Governor Goebel is to be sued for sums aggregating $25,000 for physicians' and attorneys' fees. It will be remembered that Messrs. Aaron Kohn and Zach Phelps, of Louisville, were two of Mr. Goebel's attorneys before the Contest Board in his contest for Governor. One of their friends, in speaking of the matter to-night, said:

"Phelps and Kohn rendered valuable aid to Mr. Goebel, for which they have not been paid. They have written to the administrator of Governor Goebel, but, receiving no reply, have determined to file suit in Kenton County for their fee, which is in the neighborhood of $15,000.

"I am informed that Dr. J. W. McCormack, of Bowling Green, who was almost constantly with Governor Goebel after he was shot, has not been paid anything, although it was published that he had been given $10,000, and he will join the attorneys in their suit and ask for several thousand dollars. Dr. Vance, of Louisville, and several other consulting physicians, it is said, will sue for various amounts that will bring the total up to about $25,000."

This is the substance of the story that comes direct from the claimants.

Dr. E. E. Hume, of Frankfort, who was with Mr. Goebel almost as much as Dr. McCormack, was asked about the matter to-night and he said:

"I know nothing about it. I have sent in no bill for services, and my understanding at the time was that none of us, except Dr. Vance, the surgeon, would charge anything for attending the wounded Governor."

It is known that Dr. Welch, of Nicholasville, and Dr. Tobin, of Frankfort, have never thought of presenting a bill for services.

Of course the attorney fees are another matter, as the services they performed were tendered under some arrangement made with Governor Goebel some time prior to his assassination.

Just what the outcome of the matter will be cannot be conjectured, but the talk about it has created a stir in Frankfort.

J. WESLEY LEE,
THE CLOTHIER AND FURNISHER.

Im-mense!

More so than ever before is the enormous stock of goods I carry, but you can only get a full conception of the magnitude of my coming and seeing for yourself, which all are specially invited to do. Being encouraged by my largely increased business of the last year my purchases for the season now at hand have been enormously heavy in order to meet the rapidly growing demands of my trade, which is not now confined to retailing exclusively, but I have a large and steadily growing

WHOLESALE TRADE,

Which has to be supplied with the better class of goods, that are not to be found in many of the jobbing houses. I was early in the market, which enabled me to make my purchases—exclusively for cash—before the advance in prices of many of the leading articles. Therefore, I am prepared to successfully meet any and all competition. I handle nothing but the best goods, all of which I buy directly from the producers in large quantities at prices as low as any jobbing house in the State. I am always in position to sell the very best goods at prices as low, or even lower, than you pay for common, stale and trashy stuff at other places; besides I carry in stock many articles that can't be found in any other store in our city. Special attention is called to my very large and superior stock of

New Crop Plantation Molasses,
Pure Lewis County
Sorghum,

Green and roasted Coffees, Sugars and fine Teas, immense stock of canned goods of all kinds, pure Maple Syrup and Sugar, the finest brands of Hams, Breakfast Bacon and Leaf Lard, put up specially for my trade. Pure Buckwheat Flour, Pancake Flour, Whole Wheat Flour, Graham Flour, Cereals of all kinds, Poultry, Games Oysters, Crabberries, Apples, Oranges, Lemons, Bananas, Figs, Dates, Raisins, Citron, Lemon and Orange Peel, Olives, finest Cream Cheese, Edam Cheese, Pine Apple Cheese, Mince Meat, Preserves, Catsup, fine Pickles—sour and sweet—in fact everything to eat of the very best. In addition, and specially for the holiday trade, I have laid in an immense supply of which will be sold at net cost to my customers as a Christmas treat. And don't forget the Perfection Flour is the best and that my fine blended coffee has no equal.

People from the country are invited to make my house headquarters when in our city. I run two delivery wagons regularly and all goods will be delivered to any part of city promptly. Come if you can, but if you can't come call up PHONE 85.

Times-Star: "Captain Fred Edgington, of the Edgington line, is scouring Western waters in search of a steamer to replace the Charles B. Pearce, which was recently sold. According to Doc Smith, chief clerk of the line, Captain Fred Edgington was down on the Mississippi and various other places where it is possible for a steamer to be. He returned last Friday without having gained any success and went to Parkersburg with the same object in view. Mr. Smith says they have no boat in sight. In the meantime their steamer, the M. P. Wells, will discontinue her daily run to Manchester and make three trips a week to Buena Vista, leaving Cincinnati Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. In regard to the Urania, Mr. Smith stated that all negotiations with Bay Brothers are off."

The International Grand Opera Company Coming.
Mr. Corneax Behenna, manager of the International Grand Opera Company, was in Maysville Tuesday, and lovers of opera will be glad to learn this splendid company is to appear here on the evening of Dec. 31st. Madame Cleopatra Vicini, the prima donna soprano of this company, is thus spoken of by the New York World:

Senorita Vicini sang the part of Lucia and achieved a decided triumph. The demands made upon a prima donna by this role are enormous. It exacts the utmost skill, and it is only the thoroughly trained singer who dares attempt to scale the heights and depths of its elaboration. The Mme. Vicini was able to so represent the intricacies of the score as to win a very riot of applause was most gratifying to the singer, and on the part of the listeners the bestowal of a tribute richly earned.

Please do bring me a lot of nice things for Christmas. Willie wants a pair of Ice Skates, for he thinks there's going to be lots of fun on the ponds from now on.

My big Brother Jack says he saw some of the "dandiest" Pearl-Handle Pocket-Knives the other day that ever "came over the pike," whatever that means. But Jack says so many funny things and is such a tease. He told sister she ought to have a nice Coal Vase and handsome Brass Fire Set for the parlor to "show off" when she entertains her best beaux.

Make mama's happiness complete by bringing her one of those beautiful cases of Triple-plated Pearl-Handle Knives and Forks.

Papa would be so proud of one of those fine Pearl-Handle Razors and grandmother would appreciate a set of nice Scissors.

EDITH.

The one thing needed to make this little miss' letter complete is to tell Old Santa where the choicest stock of these useful goods may be found. An exquisite line is being displayed by the

A Woman's Awful Peril.

"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation," were the startling words heard by Mrs. I. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gall stones had formed and she constantly grew worse. Then she began to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful stomach, liver and kidney remedy. Cures dyspepsia, loss of appetite. Try it. Only 50c. Guaranteed. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, druggists.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

FOR ASSESSOR.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the nomination for the office of Assessor, subject to the action of the Democratic party. I am from the Lewisburg precinct, which, although the champion Democratic precinct of the county, has heretofore been ignored in the distribution of the offices, and my friends ask that she be recognized in this instance at least by my cordial support. If nominated, I will be elected; if elected, I will faithfully perform the duties of the office,—see the people, and not simply copy the old books.
HORD LONG.

We are authorized to announce W. H. HAWES, of Minerva precinct, as a candidate for County Assessor, subject to the action of the Democratic party.
